Position:	Locum GP, Inuvik Regional Hospital
Specialty:	Family Practice
Health Authority:	Beaufort-Delta
Location:	Inuvik, NWT
Practice Description:	The Inuvik Regional Hospital (IRH) has unique opportunities for challenging and adventurous medicine. From Canada's most northern hospital, well above the Arctic Circle, we provide medical and social services to approximately 7,000 residents within the Beaufort Delta and further north. The IRH provides a diversity of practice unmatched in Canada. Inpatient, outpatient, surgical, obstetrical, pediatric and medevac services in Inuvik and seven smaller, far flung aboriginal communities (nearest 60 km; farthest 669 km) with Health Centres run by primary care nurses.
Staff Description:	The IRH has unique opportunities for physicians seeking new challenges as locums or permanent staff. Our full complement is a medical staff of 9, including 2 G.P. Surgeons and 2 G.P. Anesthetists. The IRH is an accredited teaching hospital (affiliated with the University of British Columbia), teaching Canadian, as well as international students and residents.
Obstetrics required:	Optional
Call Arrangements:	Our backup is legendary: help is only a phone call and two minutes away.
Qualifications (Required/Preferred):	Candidates must be eligible to practice medicine in the Northwest Territories.
Compensation:	Highly competitive locum salary, free accommodation and free travel.
Additional:	Experience medicine as it should be and hone your skills. Work with seasoned northern medical veterans with excellent local and specialist backup. Clinic visits to these isolated communities, medevacs and enjoyment of the summer and winter recreational opportunities are all part of the experience in this, the REAL Canada. Excellent short and long term remuneration and benefits.
